

International Water Stewardship Standards: Update
London, 28th April 2010

Venue: Thistle Hotel, Marble Arch, London, UK

Session Objectives

- 1) Update on the Alliance for Water Stewardship (AWS) and the AWS Global Water Roundtable
- 2) Review and feedback on the Business Case for Water Stewardship
- 3) Update on the development of International Water Stewardship Standards

Time	Agenda	Notes
14.00 – 14.30	The Alliance for Water Stewardship: introduction, development plan and latest developments Matthew Wenban-Smith, Alliance for Water Stewardship	AWS background and objectives, AWS development plan, and up to the minute presentation on latest developments
14.30 – 15.00	The Business Case for Water Stewardship Robin Farrington, Water Policy Advisor, WWF-UK	The water stewardship business proposition
15.00 – 15.20	Discussion and Feedback Session	Facilitated discussion: opportunity to discuss AWS's plans and business proposition in an open feedback session
15.20 – 15.40	Coffee and Tea
15.40 – 16.10	The AWS Global Water Roundtable process Andrew Murphy, Worldwide Fund for Nature (WWF), Director of Markets Strategy, Research and Development.	The latest information on the AWS Global Water Roundtable process, its relationship with regional water stewardship initiatives and the process for developing international water stewardship standards.
16.10 - 16.40	Water Stewardship Standards Dr. Sabine von Wirén-Lehr, European Water Partnership (EWP)	Update on the content of water stewardship standards - the relationship between draft regional standards, international standards and the implications for further development and field testing
16.40 - 17.00	Questions and Feedback Session	Facilitated discussion
17.00 - 17.15	Summing up and close Matthew Wenban-Smith, Alliance for Water Stewardship	Summary of presentations, and opportunities for further involvement